SUMMARY:

1. This diary covers the activities of the 1st Battalion, 5th Marines during the period 1-31 December, 1950. From 1-11 December this battalion was engaged in combat operations in the rugged mountainous terrain of the CHOSIN Reservoir Area in snow and sub-zero temperatures against Chinese Communist Forces and participated in the 1st Marine Division retrograde movement from that area to HAMHUNG. Shortly after the battalion arrived at HAMHUNG it embarked aboard the USS GENERAL RANDALL on 12 December, departed 13 December and arrived at the port of PUSAN at 1230, 14 December. (For details of this period see Special Action Report covering period 8 October to 15 December, 1950). Battalion motor transport and supply moved to GREEN Beach at HUNGNAM and loaded aboard on AKA. Upon arrival in PUSAN a battalion quartering party proceeded overland to MASAN while the battalion disembarked from the USS GENERAL RANDALL and boarded LST-Q009 for movement to MASAN. The remainder of the month was spent in rehabilitation, retraining of personnel and the re-supplying of the battalion. Motorized patrols were conducted to ANMIN-NI and the NAKTONG-RIVER. Platoons were provided for regimental guard duty, for manning regimental out-posts in CHANG-WON and in the vicinity of the regimental assembly area, and for military police duty in the city of MASAN and local villages near the regimental assembly area.

1-15 See 1st Battalion, 5th Marines, 1st Marine Division, FMF Special Action Report covering the period 8 October to 15 December, 1950.
16. A battalion quartering party departed from PUSAN at 0930, 15 December by rail for a new assembly area in the vicinity of MASAN. The battalion, having boarded LST-Q009 at PUSAN at 1830, 15 December, departed for MASAN at 1025 and arrived at 1799. The first elements debarked and boarded trucks at 1815 for movement to the 1st Marine Division Assembly Area. The weather was clear and cool.

17. By 0300 the movement of personnel to the battalion area in the vicinity of CHANG-WON was completed. The companies established an interior guard for the night in their respective areas. As many tents were pitched as was possible so that all personnel could be placed under cover. All companies conducted weapons and equipment inspections. Re-equipping and re-supplying of the battalion commenced. The battalion was fed hot baker rations by the 2nd Battalion galley. At 1615 the battalion motor transport and supply train arrived from PUSAN after disembarking from the AKA which carried them from HUNGHAM. Thirty-eight (38) sick evacuated; all were frostbite cases. Seventy-two (72) replacements joined. The weather was clear and slightly cooler.

18. Re-equipping and re-supply of clothing, 782 gear, weapons and mess equipment continued throughout the day. The battalion again was fed hot baker rations by the 2nd Battalion galley. More tentage was put up and improvement of the battalion assembly area continued. Fifty-eight (58) sick evacuated, majority of which were frostbite cases. One (1) returned to duty. The weather continued to be clear and cool.
